Lecturer Profile:

“Paula believes that passing the F3 paper is all about continued hard work and commitment. She provides the motivation for students to achieve and maintain the necessary commitment over the entire semester. Students will be in a position to attempt pass exam questions right from her first lecture, where Paula gives individualised feedback in a safe and constructive environment. As a result, Paula’s students enjoy excellent pass rates with a recent student achieving 96% in his exam. Her lectures are both lively and informative”.
